

Christmas Day at the Green's home

These are the Greens. They are in the dining room and they are having breakfast.

It's 9 o'clock!

Sammy isn't eating now, he is playing with his dog. Alice and her mother are looking through the window. Alice says to her mum "Look mum! It's snowing." They are very happy because today is Christmas. They've got a big Christmas tree in the living room. Alice and her brother love celebrating Christmas. They're waiting for their grandparents to open the presents. They're under the Christmas tree.

They're very excited!
