

Simon the farmer

My name's Simon. I'm 19 years old.
My father is a farmer. I live on a farm in the U.S.A.
I'm American. My father and sister are American but my mum isn't American, she's French.
We've got a big farm and we have lots of cows.
Do you like milk? With the milk we make cheese and yoghurt. Mum makes butter.
My dad usually gets up at 6 o'clock and feeds the animals and I help him with the job.
At 8 o'clock it's time for breakfast. Mum always prepares eggs, bacon, tomatoes and beans. Dad drinks coffee, mum drinks tea and the children drink fresh milk. Helen, my mum, feeds the chickens in the morning. She looks around for eggs and puts them in a basket. Dad feeds also the pigs and the sheep.
Mum returns to the kitchen. She cooks vegetables and some meat for lunch. She often makes a delicious cake, too.
Nancy feeds the dogs and Emily the cats. They're my sisters: Nancy is eight years old and Emily is five years old. They go to primary school.
At midday we have lunch all together. At 2 pm everybody goes back to work. My father goes to the garden and water plants and flowers. Mum washes the dishes and cleans the house. My sisters do their homework and I go to the stall and feeds the horses. We have four horses. I love my farm and I will be always a farmer.
